TUSCANY IN A SIMPLE WORD: WINE

Tuscany is famous worldwide for its excellent production of wine and with this tour you can learn about this important aspect of the local culture. This wine tour let you visit cellars and make wine tasting, for visitors to Tuscany who want to experience the process of winemaking and sample excellent wines.

The first winery is in the typical Tuscan hilly countryside and it's a family-run company. It's ideal for people who would experience the authentic Tuscany, learning about one of its typical products: the wine. Visiting this winery, you could have relaxing moments, drinking a good wine and learning about Tuscan culture and traditions. The visit starts with the cellar, where the guide will explain you all the phases of making wine, from the harvest until the bottle. At the end, you can enjoy some local food with the wine tasting.

In the second winery the visit starts with an introduction on the history of the medieval village where it's located and on the revival of agricultural activities thanks to the careful selection of quality, you will visit the new cellar, and then taste a Classic Method rosé sparkling wine and a Chianti red wine, accompanied by extra virgin olive oil of own production with Tuscan cold cuts and cheeses, crackers and breadsticks.

The third winery is in the typical Tuscan hilly countryside and visiting this winery, you could have relaxing moments and learn about Tuscan culture and traditions. The wine tasting is paired with CHOCOLATE! Don't lose this unique opportunity!

TWO TUSCAN "TREASURE" IN THE SAME TOUR

Tuscany is famous worldwide for food and wine. In this tour you could enjoy both!

The tour starts with the visit of a cheese factory, which has the aim of constantly renewing and developing with full respect for tradition and it is looking ahead from its headquarters in the heart of Tuscany, increasing production yet keeping the quality of its products unchanged. Careful selection of milks and the working methods have not changed over the years. This important aspect is particularly notable in the traditional production of cheese using raw milk, in the dry salting process – carried out exclusively using a type of salt that comes from the nearby salt flat of Volterra -, in the shaping by hand and in the treatment of the outside of the cheeses using natural products such as extra virgin olive oil, tomato paste and olive grounds and, last but not least, in the slow maturation on shelves of spruce and beds of straw, in both controlled and natural environments. Then we'll visit a winery in the typical Tuscan hilly countryside and it's a family-run company. It's ideal for people who would experience the authentic Tuscany, learning about one of its typical product: the wine. Visiting this winery, you could have relaxing moments, drinking a good wine and learning about Tuscan culture and traditions. The visit starts with the cellar, where the guide will explain you all the phases of making wine, from the harvest until the bottle. At the end, you can enjoy a lunch with the wine tasting.

ENJOY THE TUSCAN FOOD, VISITING AN ANCIENT VILLAGE

In this beautiful village on the top of the hill with 360 degrees view on the surrounding valley, there is a spectacular example of medieval castle, which is perfectly conserved and where you can have.

The tour starts of the Castle. The Castle was very important during the Middle Age and Renaissance period thanks to its strategic position on the top of the hills, where people can control the surrounding area to prevent any enemies' attacks. The Castle is nowadays an amazing example of medieval architecture with its fortified walls, the beautiful rooms, the prisons....

Then you will visit the family-run pasta factory, where you can learn how the family makes the pasta, which is famous all around the world thanks to the artisanal and traditional production methods and the strict attention to the raw materials and the quality.

The tour continues visiting a butcher's shop, where you could learn how the famous Prosciutto is produced, carefully following the Tuscan tradition.

Then the last place is an amazing ageing cave for cheese, where you could learn more about the production and the specific ageing process done in the cave.

At the end a fantastic tasting of all the products and, of course, a glass of wine!

LET'S DISCOVER THE REGION OF THE OLIVES

Enjoy a fantastic tour in the area of the Pisan Mountains, where Extra Virgin Olive Oil is produced since a long time. In fact, there are a lot of historical olive oil mill.

Our tour starts with the visit of the medieval village of Vicopisano and its fortified complex, realized by the architect Filippo Brunelleschi (the same who built the Cathedral Dome in Florence). In 1440 he erected the Rocca Nuova and reinforced the surrounding walls. You can walk on the wall and climb on one of the 13 medieval tower-houses to admire the rich historical and artistic offer of the village. The visit ends with the Romanesque Churches of the area such as the Parish Church of Santa Maria which preserves a 13th-century cycle of frescoes.

The tour continues with a guided tour in an organic olive oil mill, giving you an interesting and detailed introduction to the world of extra virgin olive oils, the methods of cultivation of the trees, the techniques for extraction from the olives. Then you can have a look of the mill and the machinery and the technology used for production. Beside the modern machineries, you can admire an ancient oil mill, used in the past to compare the modern technologies with the ancient ones.

At the end, you can finally taste this “green gold” (so called in Italy) on a slice of toasted bread!

5-8 PAX: € 80,00 per Person

LET'S DISCOVER THE PISAN HILLS AND ITS NATURE

Enjoy a fantastic tour in the area of the Pisan Mountains in the way you prefer.

Our tour starts with the visit of a jewel in this area: the Chartreuse of Calci. It was founded in 1366 by a group of Carthusian monks, the building has been enlarged between the XVII and the XVIII century and now appears as a marvellous baroque monument set into an evocative landscape. The visit is an evocative trip through the world of the Carthusian monk, discovering the lonely life they use to lead, built up on strictness, meditation and contemplation, in a place which is still beautiful for the splendour, the magnificence and the majesty of its decorations.

The tour continues in a very special lab where you can learn more about coffee and the secrets of the Italian espresso. The lab starts with introduction about coffee seeds varieties to arrive to the final product: a cup of espresso.

FROM THE LEANING TOWER TO THE SEASIDE

Pisa is very famous as a city of art, but few people know that, at a short distance from the town centre, it is possible to spend a day at the seaside. The route follows the new bike path from Pisa in the direction of Marina di Pisa.

It is a perfect route for families and for those who want to ride in safety and peace, between the countryside, the pine forest and the sea. The landscapes are incredible, such as the Arno River, characterized by the presence of the "scaies" and "retoni" (large fishing nets placed on wooden constructions similar to stilts) and the characteristic marina.

The bike path continues for another 2 km through the pine forest to reach the old train station in Marina di Pisa.

After having reached the coast, you can enjoy a nice light lunch in a farmhouse to taste some local products. Then we will be back to Pisa.
